

DECLARATION OF COMMITMENT TO THE ECPAT CODE

The Magnific, aware of the fact that the Commercial Sexual Exploitation of minors throughout the world is a problem which affects the Tourism Industry, has expressed its resolve to abide by the Code of Conduct for the Protection of Boys, Girls and Teenagers with regard to Sexual Exploitation in the Travel and Tourism Sector (ECPAT), confirming its commitment to fulfil the code's six criteria:

1. To establish an ethical corporate policy against the commercial sexual exploitation of minors.
2. To train staff in all the countries it operates in.
3. To introduce a clause in contracts with providers which establishes common rejection of the commercial sexual exploitation of minors.
4. To provide information to clients by means of informative material and via our website.
5. To provide information to the "key local agents" in each destination.
6. To give annual reports on the implementation of these points.

The company hereby agrees to the implementation of actions and good practices intended to eradicate the problem, incorporating the following promises into its Social Responsibility policies:

1. To promote Human Rights, and in particular children's rights.
2. To reject, eradicate and condemn any form of exploitation of human beings, especially of a sexual nature, particularly when this affects minors.
3. To adopt preventive measures to prevent the development or circulation of tourist programmes which promote or encourage any sexual involvement with minors.
